

FAIRBANKS WAS THE CANDIDATE

That Was Named By The Indiana State Republican Convention In Session Today.

KEYNOTE OF CAMPAIGN IS GIVEN

Senator Beveridge Makes Address In Which He Praises Roosevelt And The Republican Administration Of Public Affairs.

[BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.] Indianapolis, Ind., April 1.—The Indiana republicans went into the state convention today to adopt a platform and formally present to the country Charles Warren Fairbanks as their choice for president.

It was agreed by a large majority of the party leaders that the most prominent plank in the platform in addition to a strong resolution in support of Fairbanks should be the one favoring the local option with county as unit.

Others urge a revision of the tariff by a special session of congress to be called immediately after the fall election.

At the opening of the convention this afternoon Chairman Overstreet delivered the keynote address, followed by speeches by Senators Beveridge and Hemanway and Gov. Hanley.

Senator Beveridge said: Gentlemen of the Convention: The world moves, and the Republican party is abreast of the times. "The world moves," said Galileo three centuries ago, and the narrow minds who ruled that day forced him to recant. But the Republican party never has yielded and never will yield to those who ask it to about-face. The Republican party is always on the march toward better things. Every Republican watches and waits for the day when the public mind will be brought to a realization of the fact that the Republican party is the only party that has been a champion of progress.

The first Republican candidate for president was called the Great Pathfinder. His second candidate for president was called the Great Liberator. The last candidate for president was called the Nation's chief magistrate. Today is called the Great Reformer. These men did things for the people—that is what made them Republican leaders.

A Republican leader is not a man who is an apostle of ideas, a writer of laws, a door of deeds. The Republican party does not exist to get offices for the ambitious; it exists only to work out the welfare of the Nation, to right the wrongs that cause the people to seek the government of the law by making law and securing demands of justice. The Republican party will preserve the rights of property by making property observe the rights of man. To make conditions better, human life happier, liberty broader and stronger—this is the meaning of our organization.

And it has been this undying purpose of human betterment that has written every reform of the last eight hundred years and created the new world of Washington, Jackson and Lincoln as a leader of the people toward liberty and light the name of Theodore Roosevelt.

We must go to the people, not merely to the people, but to the people of the future, telling them what we are doing for the people today and what we will do for the people tomorrow. Every law we have written was bitterly fought and carefully revised; yet so wise are those laws that all parties now endorse them, and even men in our own party who secretly opposed them are now publicly their loudest champions.

It is said that we have gone too far and done too much; but why do not those who say this propose to erase a single line we have written? Why do they not propose to abolish the Department of Commerce and Labor, to repeal the pure food and meat inspection laws, the irrigation law, and any other statute in that great structure of righteous legislation whose foundation and framework these laws are? And if no man proposed to tear down what we have built, shall we listen to their counsel that we should not finish our work? For there is yet work to be done. It is not, let us disband. When any party becomes merely a machine, seeking the spoils of office, it is no longer a political party, but a company of brigands.

A demagogic policy is not Republicanism. American, laurels fade when not refreshed by new and noble deeds.

We must revise the Sherman law. It is nearly twenty years old in fact, and a century old in spirit. It penalizes dishonest combination, and that is right; but also it punishes honest business, and that is wrong. Business is the name for the trade activities of the people. Free its hands, unshackle its feet. Only upon the dishonest let the ball and chain be locked. Strike only that business which pillars from the people; but help all business that serves the people. Our watchword is justice. For the plagues of business, the yardstick of the plank; but for honest business the open seas and welcoming ports.

The tariff must be revised immediately after the Presidential election. To revise it now would lock up business for months of disaster and doubt. He who would refuse to revise the tariff immediately after the Presidential election is too unwise to be trusted; he who would revise the tariff on the eve of the Presidential election is too hypocritical to be tolerated. But the earliest possible revision of the tariff is the will of the people because it is the demand of conditions, and to the people's will and changing conditions Bourbon obstruction must yield.

Two years ago some of us began this fight. We were met with arrogance from those who think that the world does not move; from interests whom the tariff properly protected when it was made, but whom changed conditions now enable to act like highway men to other honest interests; from a purchased press owned by plutocratic corporations and by men whose wealth flowed from obsolete schedules. But success is now in sight, and, as Indiana led the first charge in this battle, so let Indiana lead the last charge that crowns it with victory.

And let that revision be honest and businesslike. Let experts at once begin the work of finding out the facts and making classifications. The man who does not want experts to find out the facts does not want the facts found out. Our classifications are a generation old. They are so out of date that three hundred thousand contents have been decided to find out in what class articles really belonged. Let us go to the people not only promising revision, but saying to them that we are already at work gathering all the data upon which Congress can act with knowledge and wisdom and without delay. By common-sense tariff methods Germany is passing us on the seas of commerce; even little Japan is rivaling us. Give America the same common-sense methods, and she will beat Germany, Japan, and all the world combined.

This testimony was upon cross examination by Attorney Wm. F. Bennett in the case of Fred C. Schultz and Anthony V. Kleisick, charged with bribery in connection with the sale of the county morgue site to the street railway company. Judge Vinjoly finally denied the testimony of August P. Palk against Schultz and Kleisick for the reason that on a previous occasion Kleisick was found not guilty by a jury upon the same testimony.

LAND FRAUD CASES WERE CALLED FOR TRIAL TODAY

Alleged Conspirators Are Finally To Face The Bar Of Justice In Washington.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] Washington, D. C., April 1.—After repeated delays and postponements, John A. Benson, J. H. Schneider, Henry P. Diamond and Frederick A. Hyde, real estate operators of the Pacific coast, are finally to face the bar of justice and answer to charges of conspiracy to defraud the United States out of valuable timber concessions in nearly every state west of the Mississippi River. These four defendants, according to the Government officials, are the ring leaders of the most stupendous land frauds ever brought to light in this country.

The cases were called for trial today before Justice Stanford. The trial is expected to consume nearly three months, as more than 200 witnesses may be examined. Congress recently authorized the expenditure necessary to conduct the prosecution and to defray the entire cost, approximately $50,000 to be borne by the Government and the portion charged against the District of Columbia, in whose courts the trial is to take place. The case of the prosecution will be handled by United States Attorney Barker, Special Assistant United States Attorney Hugh and Francis J. Heney, of San Francisco, special counsel for the United States in the prosecution of land frauds. The defendants have engaged eminent counsel, including Attorneys A. S. Worthington, R. Holden Donaldson and A. A. Blaney, with three assistants.

The case against Benson, Diamond, Schneider and Hyde have been closed for the past four years. John A. Benson is regarded as the principal in the alleged conspiracy. For many years he has been a prominent figure on the Pacific coast. Early in life he went from Ohio to San Francisco, where he established himself as a surveyor, land agent and real estate operator. From 1875 to 1879 he held the office of United States' Deputy Surveyor. Then he proceeded to organize the Benson land ring, seeking to control contracts for surveying Government lands. For the next six years he and his crowd controlled all contracts for surveying Government lands in California and the neighboring States.

Reports of Benson's finally led to an official investigation as a result of which seventy-six indictments were returned against Benson and his associates. In 1885 and 1886 Benson himself was indicted on less than twenty-four times. Wealth and influence were employed to prevent the trial of the cases. Meanwhile special agents of the Government were sent to San Francisco to make a thorough investigation of the State and Federal officials who had protected Benson. They found that the Southern Pacific Railroad as well as a number of prominent officials were interested in the Benson contracts. Although the special agents completed their evidence the cases were repeatedly postponed and never came to trial.

From 1887 to 1895 the Benson cases dragged through the United States courts. In the latter year Benson and his associates, having amassed a large fortune in California, withdrew their field of operations to include Oregon, Washington and other states. Then came the investigation started by Secretary Hitchcock in 1893, resulting in charges involving Senator Mitchell, Representative Langer Hornerman and others of prominence. As a result of the evidence brought to light in these trials Benson was convicted at San Francisco, in August, 1907, of conspiracy to defraud the government out of 12,000 acres of land, and sentenced to ten years' imprisonment. He appealed the case and has since been at liberty under $30,000 bond. Now, with a fortune estimated at $20,000,000, he and his associates must again stand trial on charges of alleged wholesale swindling.

REFORMERS MEET TO CHOOSE CANDIDATES

Peoples Party and Other Reform Bodies to Have Convention in St. Louis.

[SPECIAL TO THE GAZETTE.] St. Louis, Mo., April 1.—Representatives of the People's party and other so-called reform bodies in politics are arriving in this city to attend their national convention. Candidates for President and Vice-President are to be nominated and a platform will be adopted. The National Prohibition League and the Federated Peoples Party Clubs are among the reform organizations that united with the People's party in issuing the call for the convention headquarters today. It was stated that an attendance representative of the entire country is expected.

Under the People's party call the Independence League, William R. Hearst's organization, may participate in the convention and the nomination of a presidential candidate. Efforts are being made, it is said, to consolidate the two into a new organization, inasmuch as their platforms are very similar. It appears from the declaration of principles and purposes that there is to be no union of fusion with either of the old parties.

Arrangements have been made to hold the convention in the Olympic Theatre. The gathering will be called to order at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning by James H. Forrester, of Joliet, Ill., chairman of the Populist national committee. It is expected the first day will be taken up wholly with preliminary business and the work of organization, leaving the nominations and the adoption of a platform to come Friday.

So far Thomas E. Watson, of Ga., appears to be about the only person mentioned for the Presidential nomination. Mr. Watson was the Populist candidate for Vice-President in 1896, when the national convention endorsed Bryan for the Presidency. In 1901 Mr. Watson was the Presidential candidate of the People's party. Hundreds of large campaign buttons bearing Mr. Watson's picture are being distributed today among

NEW FACTORIES
SEEK LOCATION
TWO PROPRIETORS OF GROWING
INDUSTRIES VISIT CITY.

MAY COME TO JANESVILLE
Automobile Factory Assured—North-Western Yards Complete—Inter-
urban a Possibility—Bottling Works to Be Built.

What promises to be a year of prosperity is opening up for Janesville.
Businessmen all over the country are making inquiries relative to Janesville
as a possible location for their business industries. The North-Western road has just completed a new assembling yards south of the city that bids fair to be the largest and most modern one of the entire system. Interurban builders are already in the field with a proposed road to Madison. An automobile factory is assured, the city.
Two other factories have practically decided to come to the city to make their homes. The plans for erecting the bottling works at Hixson Springs are more definite than ever and the Park and Pleasure Drive Association has planned its work for the coming summer to make Janesville
the city beautiful.

New Factories
A firm which at present manufactures automobile tire covers, known as the Rock Crusher Automobile Covers, at present employing ten men, has decided to locate in Janesville from its present location, double its employment and enlarge its scope of business.
It will need over four thousand square feet of floor space to begin with and double that within a year, according to its manager, who was here yesterday to inspect the factory sites offered for rent. Better shipping facilities, more room and a central location
were the inducements that Janesville offered that caught the manufacturer's eye. While this industry is a small one it will grow rapidly and develop into one of the larger factories of the city as the demand for the article it produces increases with the rapid growth of the use of automobiles by the people all over the country.

Furnace Concern.
Then from Hixson comes an inquiry as to location for a gasoline furnace plant. This factory employs a continually growing force of employees, reaches a long felt want and has no direct competitors in its line of furnace. It needs Janesville because of the location, the power, the general conditions and the fact that of all the cities in Northern Illinois
and Southern Wisconsin, Janesville was least affected by the recent financial flurry. This speaks well for Janesville. The location of the new North-Western assembling yards will bring many new industries to the city
as the promise for speedy transit facilities is something that attracts manufacturers.

Auto Factory
The location of the automobile factory in Janesville is assured. The men who are to conduct the affair will be in Janesville just as soon as the model car is complete ready for the trial run and then the work of building twenty-five for the first year's sale will begin. This promises to be an important industry here which will grow rapidly. Local capital being invested assures its location. In this city and adds one more industry
to the list of those already located.
The factory will employ experienced mechanists and will pay excellent salaries.

Up the River
With the talk of the interurban being built from Janesville to Madison comes the talk of the building of the bottling works of the Hixson Springs. This company has been delayed by lack of facilities to transport their products and with an interurban connection they would be in a position to bottle their goods and ship
them without a heavy additional cost.
The fact that the promoters of the proposed road are already in the field and have gone over the route demonstrates that something is doing in this direction and the building at the springs may follow as a direct result of the road's being built.

ORCHESTRA GIVES A PUBLIC REHEARSAL
Janesville Symphony Orchestra Rendered Delightful Program
Last Evening.

Before an audience which filled the main floor and the galleries of the Congregational church last evening
the Janesville Symphony orchestra gave a most enjoyable public rehar-sal. The concert was under the direction of Miss Jennie Crandall, who conducted the orchestra.

The program was opened by two selections by the orchestra, which were the overture from the "Post and the Beacon" by Shuman and a love song from "A Day in Venice" by Novelli. Both were excellently rendered and were received with applause.
Miss Spooner then gave a reading,
"The Hugger in the Opera," after which she responded with an encore.
A violin quartet composed of Miss Crandall, Miss Wilma Severhill, Miss Wilson and Miss Wilma Holmes gave the next number, which was followed by a cello solo by Mr. Crandall with an orchestra accompaniment. Mrs.

Chas. Knott was unable to give her numbers as she was out of town so the vocal selection in the first part of the program was omitted.
Following a short intermission the orchestra gave another selection, Miss Wilma Severhill, a violin solo, Miss Spooner, a reading, and Mr. Brunson a cornet solo with orchestra accompaniment. Mr. E. Van Pool then sang "When Thou Art Near Me" by Lohr and the program closed with two selections by the orchestra.
The numbers throughout were exceptionally well rendered and the orchestra may congratulate itself on the concert.

JEWISH HOLIDAY OF
THE PASSOVER NEAR

Curious Customs Handed Down
Through Many Centuries Will Be Observed by Orthodox Jews.

The celebration of the "first independence day of the world" will begin at 6 o'clock on the night of April 14 and continue eight days until 6 o'clock on the night of April 22. It is the annual Jewish celebration of the passover, the escape of the children of Israel from the bondage of Egypt,
and it will be observed in the homes
of the orthodox Jews, as by the children of the scattered race the world over. It is the independence festival of the Jews and its ceremonies signify to them the great principle of human liberty.
With curious customs that are recorded in the scriptural account of the passover and that have been handed down through the centuries, the Jewish people will commemorate their deliverance from bondage. On the first two nights, which are known as the Seder evenings, the entire family gathers around the table and eats unleavened bread and bitter herbs.
Before each member of the family is placed four cups of wine, from which he must drink, each being significant of one of the four promises of deliverance to be found in the scriptures. The ancient custom was to have a mezzaluna hand at the feast,
a hand held at the center of the table ready to part of the service.
This hand is eaten in a reclining position, as was the first passover meal, when all the first born of Egypt
were slain and the first born of Israel were passed over. The reclining position signifies the freedom, as is shown by the use of the custom among the freedmen of Rome.
The feast is divided into two parts and between them the head of the family reads "The Feast of the Passover," a book held in as much reverence by the Jews as the bible. It is the narrative of the passover and includes special prayers.
During the entire eight days of the festival orthodox Jews eat no bread but the unleavened, and many have dishes prepared especially for the feast. They exercise extreme care that nothing eaten shall contain leav-en. The reformers Jews, on the other hand, during the observance but unleavened bread is kept on the table
as a reminder of that part of the ceremony.
The necessary work is done by the orthodox Jews. The four following days are half holidays and the remaining two are again full holidays.
The who used during the festival is unleavened and is shipped from Palestine. The bottling and shipping of this wine has grown to be an important industry, forming the principal occupation of the Jewish colonies in the Holy Land. Wines made, used or even touched by anyone not a Jew are forbidden to the orthodox Jew during this week. Many bottles of the unleavened wine shipped from Palestine are consumed on the passover.

menced. The steam shovel at Cary is at work and several trains will be kept busy hauling gravel between there and here. A work extra was put on here in charge of conductor Hilly to look after the local end of the ballasting. Mr. Putnam of Chicago of the engineering department

new yards.
The job will probably take about three weeks and will keep about one hundred laborers busy for that

WAR OF EXTERMINATION
AMONG THE BROOK TROUT
In the Grand Hotel Aquarium—Only
Two Survivors of Tribe of Fifteen —Rainbows Received Today.

For three months past interurban
warfare has been raging in the school of brook-trout installed in the Grand hotel aquarium, until there are but two survivors of a once prosperous tribe of fifteen. Whatever the nature of the feuds, the combats have always been unequal, the whole clan turning on some poor unfortunate who had offended by breaches of table-etiquette or personal affront to the reigning favorite, etc. After bitting the erstwhile comrade to death,
the "sneaked gladiators" were considered enough not to eat him up—which proved, at least, that they were not cannibals. Today a new instalment of 15 rainbow trout came from the state hatchery and more peaceful conditions are hoped for.

SETTLEMENT MADE IN M'CREA ACTION
Mother of Young Man Who Was Killed
on Interurban Road to Receive
About $1,000.

In Chicago on Monday a settlement was reached in the action brought by Mrs. Nellie M. McCrea of Affton in Illinois to recover damages for the death of her son, William H. Mc-Crea, who was killed while performing his duties as a conductor on June 2, 1907. An administratrix of his estate, Mrs. McCrea will receive about $1,000 from this source, and an equal amount is said to have been paid on insurance which he carried. Fisher & Oestreich of Janesville and W. S.
Kies of Chicago were attorneys for the plaintiff and Nolan, Adams & Reeder of this city and Van Alstine of Milwaukee represented the company.
The degree of possible contributory negligence, if such an element were present at all, was not large. The young man was leaning out of the rear end of his car in an effort to adjust the trolley when the truck-wheel, attached by contact with an iron arm, struck him in the head, inflicting injuries from which he died a few hours thereafter.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS TO

Annual Rock County Sunday School Convention to Be Held at Evanville.

Evanville, March 31.—The annual Rock county Sunday school conven-

day and Wednesday, April 28 and 29, and it is stated that the meetings will all be in the Congregational church.

composed of two members from each

for the coming year and he will take possession tomorrow, April 1. H.
H. Hill, the present proprietor, has not as yet made known his plans for the future.

The new Lager library is rapidly nearing completion after a long and tortuous delay caused by the failure of the wholesale houses to promptly fill their orders for material and fixtures. The bronze statue of the donor has just been placed in position, and it is said by competent judges to be the most artistic piece of sculpture in Rock county. It is full life size and stands on a base of Montello granite weighing thirty-three hundred pounds.
Hon. and Mrs. A. S. Baker expect to spend the summer traveling and sightseeing in the old world. They will leave here about June first and will go direct to Edinburgh, Scotland,
to attend the international convention
of the Congregational church. Mr.
Baker has been chosen as a delegate.

Mrs. H. D. Morgan entertained a number of elderly ladies at dinner
yesterday in honor of the eighty-second birthday anniversary of her mother, Mrs. Maria Leddie. During the day Mrs. Leddie was the recipient of numerous congratulatory messages and several beautiful bouquets, including a large cluster of carnations from the Milwaukee society of the Congregational church, of which she is a member. The afternoon was very much enjoyed and will always be a pleasant memory to those in attendance.

Rev. George Plantz of Madison is spending part of the week here with his family.

Miss Josephine Pope, who has been spending several months here, expects to start today for her home in Binghamton, New York.

Mrs. Dan Kanne gave a dinner party last evening which was greatly enjoyed by a large number of her lady friends.

The Woman's Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church will hold their regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. A. Kager Thursday afternoon at two-thirty o'clock.
A fifteen-cent supper will be served,
the proceeds to be used for missions.
Everyone is most cordially invited to attend.

Miss Lizzie Lachslager of Brooklyn will make her home in Evanville for the summer.

CRISIS IS NEAR WITH VENEZUELA

PRESIDENT TRANSMITS TO SENATE ALL THE DOCUMENTS.

FIVE CLAIMS INVOLVED

Solicitor Scott Says the Cases Require Vigorous Action—Tentative Program is Arranged.

Washington, Apr. 1.—The long expected correspondence between America and Venezuela respecting pending American claims against the latter country was submitted to the senate Tuesday and is almost certain to create a profound impression. It will be difficult to digest the vast mass of material which Secretary Root has placed before congress, but even a cursory inspection of the documents makes it evident that negotiations have reached a critical phase.

The president's realization of that fact is shown by his transmission of the matter to the senate without any comment regarding the correspondence, and especially Secretary Root's strong presentation of the American case as sufficient to instantly enlist the attention of congress.

All of the correspondence and documents were referred to the senate committee on foreign relations. Secretary Root will appear before the committee Wednesday, ostensibly to discuss some of the tangles negotiated at The Hague, but it is expected he will take up the Venezuelan affair and suggest some action.

Three Propositions Suggested.

Those members of the committee who have already familiarized themselves with the situation have arranged tentatively a program, which consists of three propositions, as follows:

Place a prohibitive tariff on Venezuelan coffee, the exports of which constitute 45 per cent. of the entire Venezuelan foreign trade, and 95 per cent. of the coffee is taken by the United States.

Exclude all importations of asphalt from Lake Burmedez, the product of which has been taken almost entirely by the United States.

Authorize the president to exercise the general power invested in him to take whatever steps he may consider necessary to treat with Venezuela in the future.

Strong Language About Jauretti.

A memorandum compiled by Solicitor Scott of the state department gives exhaustively the facts and law in each of the five subjects of dispute between the American and Venezuelan governments. The case of the expulsion from Venezuela of A. F. Jauretti, a naturalized American, in his review of this claim Solicitor Scott uses this vigorous language:

"In view of all the facts of the case, the determined attitude of the department, and the justice of the claim, whether it be tested by the policy of this country, by the doctrines of writers of authority, by the decisions of mixed courts, or by the judgments of international tribunals, it must appear that the time has come for language stronger than that employed in a request. A demand should be made upon the Venezuelan government for the settlement of the claim in full, and if the demand be met with procrastination or refusal, the dignity of this government would seem to require prompt and vigorous action."

The other cases are the Orinoco corporation claim, the Orinoco Steamship company claim, the United States and Venezuelan company, commonly known as the Critchfield, claim, and the New York and Hernandez Asphalt company claim. In explanation of the last mentioned claim, an report is made public. This does not absolve the asphalt company from blame for inciting the Matos rebellion against President Castro.

Human Bones Stronger Than Steel.

Weight for weight, the bones in your body are many times stronger than steel.

PEPSIN ALONE WILL DIGEST 3000 GRAINS OF YOUR FOOD.

Tells why there is nothing so good as Diapiesin to cure indigestion and sour disordered stomach.

The question as to how long you are going to continue a sufferer of indigestion and stomach trouble is merely a matter of how soon you begin taking Diapiesin.

If your stomach is lacking in digestive power, why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs, but a reinforcement of digestive agents, such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

Scientific analysis shows that digestion of food requires Pepsin, nitrogenous ferments and the secretion of hydrochloric acid.

When your food fails to digest it is proof positive that some of these agents are woefully lacking in your digestive apparatus.

Each 22-grain triangle of Diapiesin, which is harmless and tastes like candy, contains pure Aspic Pepsin, Diastase, Papain, Calcium Carbonate, Tasteless Cocaine, Glycerin and other natural elements necessary to digestion, and when placed at work in a weak stomach and small intestines supply just what these organs are lacking for. These triangles of Diapiesin promptly stimulate the gastric glands, increasing the digestive juices, overcoming even the worst case of indigestion in a little while. Only one

Plain Thief Becoming Rare.

A Philadelphia woman stole to keep her daughter from working and a New York woman to keep her son in school. The plain, old-fashioned person who is impelled to steal by reason of being a thief would be deemed vulgar by the modern larcenist.

Bank of England's First Safe.

In the bank of England's museum may be seen the old oak chest which was the Old Lady of Threadneedle Street's first strong room. It is a little larger than a common seaman's chest, and in this the bank stored its cash, notes and valuable papers.

Prevent a Cold.

If members of the family come home with wet feet, have them remove their shoes and stockings, spreading a turkish bath towel on the floor, and quickly rub the feet on it until they are quite dry. A cold will be averted.

Read the want ads.

If you are a "Captain of Industry," even in a small way, you will need to provide recruits frequently—or your ranks of workers will grow thin (and self-satisfied). Want ads, bring "new blood."

BRYAN'S THREE ISSUES

The three great issues with which William J. Bryan has firmly identified his name are:

1. Free silver.

2. Government ownership of railroads.

3. Government insurance of bank deposits.

Mr. Bryan has, of course, advocated many other ideas, some of which have been adopted by President Roosevelt as the leader of the republican party.

But the three main issues which have separated Mr. Bryan's platform from that of other political leaders, either in his own or the opposing party, are the three which have been named.

However much disposed the republican party has been to stomp Mr. Bryan's "thunder" in other instances, it has never sought to deprive him of the distinction which attaches to his original advocacy of these three issues.

His political opponents have been perfectly willing that he should take out, if he desired, letters patent upon these issues. They were willing that he should have all the glory and profit which they might bring to him.

Since the country, in the election of 1896, by an overwhelming vote, defeated both him and free silver, Mr. Bryan has, indeed, not repudiated himself, but has carefully put it into the background and declared that it was no longer an issue before the country.

On his return from his tour around the world, at the great reception which was given to him in Madison Square Garden, Mr. Bryan presented the country with another "live coal from off the altar" of populism. This was government ownership of railroads. Evidently he believed that in presenting this to the country he was striking a popular chord. But, as a matter of fact, the popular response was disappointing to him.

Even in sections of the country which had been for years supporting him, there was a strong dissent from this proposition. Yet Mr. Bryan did not wholly depart of making this the winning card in his campaign for the presidency, for a few months later, in a letter to the Wall Street Journal, he restated in even stronger language than before his argument for government ownership. Again, the popular response was negative. Mr. Bryan has, therefore, been obliged to tack his government ownership issue into the same box with free silver and hide them away in the garret with other worn-out political arguments.

Still eagerly seeking some popular issue by which he could win the country, Mr. Bryan since the panic of last October, has been proclaiming his proposition for government insurance of bank deposits. For a time it seemed as if he had indeed made a deep impression. Several states took up the matter to enact laws for state guarantees of deposits. The idea was even adopted by the republican chairman of the house committee on banking and currency and put into the Fowler bill for currency reform. Quite a number of bankers accepted the idea and it even met with some favor from a few ardent students of finance. But in the main the sober common sense of businessmen refused to receive this plausible but really dangerous proposition, and it is noticeable that within the past few weeks the movement for government insurance or guarantee of deposits has been growing weaker and weaker, so that it is probable that Mr. Bryan will soon be tucking away that issue in the same box with free silver and government ownership to be put out of sight.

The question is, what will Mr. Bryan's next issue be?

A CITY MARSHAL

Janesville is now confronted with the selection of a new city marshal to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of William H. Appleby, who leaves Janesville to enter the service of Uncle Sam as a chief, deputy United States marshal. Under the state law, the election of the marshal lies with the fire and police commission. These five gentlemen will, therefore, meet this evening and proceed to elect a successor to Mr. Appleby. Thus far three candidates have been announced and their friends are active in their support. It is probable that one of the three will be chosen. In making their selection the fitness of the candidates should be carefully considered. Every man is not fitted for the position of chief of a police department. It needs a man who has had police experience. It needs a man with good judgment and a man of intelligence. The office of city marshal is not a mere figurehead. It is a reality and this officer is directly responsible for the moral tone of the city. He must see that the ordinances are obeyed, that his officers do their duty. He must have no favorites and play to the support of no special class of citizens. It is a trying position and needs a man of experience in police matters to fill it properly. It is safe to say, however, that the man selected by the fire and police commission tonight will be the best of the candidates available and will receive the hearty support of the citizens generally. The Gazette heartily supports the selection of a man who is chosen in the interests of good government and enforcement of the existing ordinances.

PROPER TREATMENT

Newspapers all over the country are taking a decided stand on the so-called popular socialists, the professors, novelists and amateur reformers who are giving aid and encouragement to the agitation for social equality. They are playing with dynamite. They are placing the nation over the mouth of a raging crater which is liable to break forth at any moment and pour its molten stream throughout the country. They are arousing ignorance and passion and poverty to class hatred; the logical consequences of which, if persisted in, must inevitably be disorder, bloodshed, crime and anarchy. It is time to halt even if the law is invoked.

TO ALL CONCERNED

The United States government has exactly-right in not permitting the "Camp 704" of Germany to establish a property test as a qualification for the American ambassador at the court of Berlin. Other things being equal, it is of advantage for an ambassador to be rich, but wealth might not be made the prime qualification for that office. Bayard Taylor made a capable minister to Germany and yet he was only equipped with brains and learning.

IN NEW GARB

This morning the Recorder appears in a new garb. After years of existence as an eight-column four-page paper, the only democratic daily in the first congressional district makes its bow as a six-column eight-page newspaper. May his life be as long and prosperous in its new departure as it was in the old and accustomed four-page dress.

That Mitchell property on West Milwaukee street at fifteen thousand dollars would be one of the greatest benefits that the city could bestow on future generations as a public park. It should receive the support of every citizen interested in making Janesville a city beautiful.

This strike in the coal regions comes at a time when if the advent of spring is delayed it will work a hardship on many. However, the "poor" coal-dealer will not be affected by the raise of price.

Election day is still a few days off, but it is safe to say that every voter in Rock county is going to cast his ballot for William Ruger for supreme court judge.

Several towns in the county will vote on the question of good roads this coming spring election. It would be well to keep this in mind.

They are still having night riders down in Kentucky and instead of tobacco beds the riders are blowing up innocent tomato plants by mistake.

So Mr. Hill goes to Berlin after all. Mr. Tower comes home and the great to-do about the appointment to this office is a past lesson in diplomacy.

Perhaps Uncle Sam will have to go down and spank Castro himself before he gets through with the situation.

The new council, when chosen, will elect a street commissioner, city health officer and fill other minor positions.

So the aldermen can not yet agree on the make of street roller they want.

So Janesville is to have a sewage system this summer that promises to be as perplexing as it is costly.

This is All Fools' day. Have you been fooled as yet? If not, you should have been.

It will soon be time for the campaign for the state officers to begin.

How about county politics? No one has as yet stirred in this matter.

Remember that April showers bring spring flowers.

JAILED-PENDING A TRIAL FOR SLANDER

Theodore Carey Sued For $5,200 Damages by Henry Laymonde For Alleged Barber's Itch Canard.

Theodore Carey, formerly associated with Henry Laymonde in a tenebrous establishment on South River street and more recently employed in the Smith shop on North Main street, was made the defendant late yesterday afternoon in an action brought by Laymonde to recover $5,200 damages for slander and alleged injury to the plaintiff's business. Laymonde alleges that Carey circulated an untrue and malicious report to the effect that barber's itch had been contracted by customers at his shop. The statutes provide that in such an action, the defendant may be arrested and held in custody until he gives bail which will in a measure guarantee his appearance when the time comes for trial. Carey has thus far been unable to furnish the $500 bonds stipulated, though a father and brother-in-law were expected to come to his assistance this afternoon. Unless this bail is furnished he will have to stay in the county jail until the May term of circuit court, his bond in the meantime being paid by the plaintiff, Laymonde. The action against Carey was brought by Nolin, Adams & Hoeder before Court Commissioner Edward Carpin-tor.

WOODMEN PICNIC TO BE ABANDONED

If Sentiment of Camps Represented at Rock County Convention in Beloit, Today, is Generally Shared.

Beloit, Wis., April 1.—Eighty-seven delegates are attending the Rock county convention of the Modern Woodmen which is in progress here today. A resolution called on the state convention to use every effort to have A. N. Fort of this city chosen for a second term as a member of the national board of directors of the lodge was passed. The convention also went on record in favor of postponing until 1909 the annual picnic of the Southern Wisconsin and northern Illinois association of lodges which was to be held in Beloit. Of late these events have not proven as popular as profitable as in the past and as each important city has entertained at least once, it is deemed advisable to discontinue the undertaking this year. It is believed that the other lodges of the district will arrive at the same decision. As a sort of substitute, the several camps within a hundred miles of Madison have been invited to attend the Monona Lake assembly on a day to be set apart for them, and known as "Woodmen's Day."

Dr. T. W. Nuzum Spoke.
The Rock County Druggists' association held their monthly supper and discussion here last evening. Dr. T. W. Nuzum who read a paper on "Cerebro and Spinal Connections" was the only Janesville visitor present at the session.

Not Drifting

There is such a thing as drifting in business and professional life. Just looking along a day by day, taking things as they come. Such a course does not get a man anywhere except nearer to the poorhouse. Dr. Richards in his Dental work is not a drifter.

He has a definite Policy.
He works towards an end.
That end is
To please his every patient just a little better than his competitors.
Does this policy win?
The facts are, his Dental practice has grown during the last seven years until he has by far the largest Dental business in Janesville.
Good work will win out.
Vigilant effort to avoid hurting also wins out.
Reasonable prices ought to appeal to your better judgment also.
Try him for your next Dental work, and you too will be convinced that he makes good.

RETURNS TO CITY FROM PORTO RICO

Edward Wray Completes His Work in the Building of an Electric Road
on the Island.

Edward Wray, son of J. G. Wray, Milwaukee avenue, who entered the employ of the J. G. Wray company a year ago, last September was sent to Porto Rico to assist in putting an electric railroad through the island, has successfully finished his work there and will sail today at three o'clock in the afternoon on the steamship Philadelphia, on his return home and will reach Janesville about the 9th. He expects to take a month's vacation to rest up and become acclimated to the home climate.

Mr. Wray has been a hard worker and is almost the only one of the original party sent out who has remained to the finish of the work.

He graduated from the J. H. S. in 1901 and from the University at Madison in 1905 with the degree of bachelor of arts, was awarded a scholarship, and in 1906 was given the degree of electrical engineer.

In Business 25 Years: Twenty-five years ago today the firm of Nelson Brothers was first started by John M. and Horatio Nelson. Mr. John M. Nelson died about ten years ago, but the firm name remains the same.

Another Suicide Clue: Deputy Sheriff Fred Gillman, who is here from Evansville today, is still searching for relatives of the late Dan Hogan, the man who took his life on the St. Paul limited some weeks ago. The chief of police at Evansville, Ind., has written him that a man of the same name living at Sugar Hill had a son named Dan who was about 35 years of age and whose description tallied almost exactly with that of the unfortunate who was buried at Evansville.

THE GUNNER MOIR AND TOMMY BURNS FIGHT.

WALL PAPER

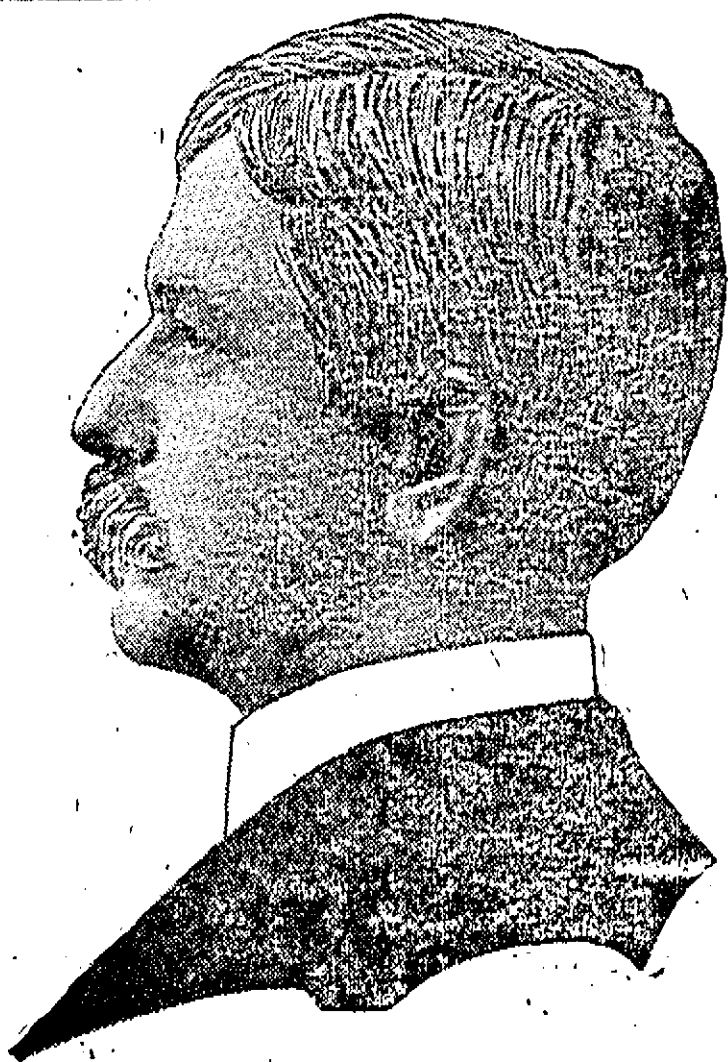

Interior Wall Paper is a mistake at any price

Interior Wall Paper cheapens your walls and soon becomes a bore. Poor colors fade quickly. Commonplace designs grow tiresome. If the color scheme lacks harmony it spoils your pleasure in the room, however richly it may be furnished. You cannot afford inferior wall paper because of its importance in the decorative scheme of your home. Good wall paper need not be expensive, but it requires refined taste and wide knowledge of artistic effects in wall paper patterns to select it.

You can find exactly what you want in this store, from the simplest to the most elaborate patterns, and feel assured that nothing inferior will be placed before you. The season's best ideas are submitted for your selection. If you have a color scheme to work out for any particular room or suite of rooms, we will be glad to assist you with our ideas.

Our prices are as moderate as you can find anywhere for the same grade paper.

COLONEL WILLIAM G. GORGAS CHIEF SANITARY OFFICER OF THE ISTHUS CANAL COMMISSION.

One of the greatest problems in connection with the Panama canal is a sanitary condition which will insure the lives and health of the men employed. Colonel William G. Gorgas has this matter in hand and his efficient work redounds to the credit of himself and the United States. The sanitary condition of the Isthmus canal region is so safeguarded that very few lives have been lost through fever or disease and this is entirely due to the work of the United States under the direction of Colonel Gorgas.

Truths and principles are divine; they govern the world; to suffer for them is the greatest glory of man.—Cardinal Manning.

Effective Repartee.

About three o'clock one morning, according to Toby, M. P., T. P., O'Connor was orating in the house of commons to 12 or 15 members lying about in various stages of drowsiness. Sir Patrick O'Brien was among them, and now and then rousing himself with a start from falling asleep, audibly engaged in conversation. "I protest against this disorderly conduct," exclaimed Mr. O'Connor at length; "this honorable baronet is constantly interrupting me." "Sir," replied Sir Patrick, with a graceful bow, "the honorable gentleman misinterprets my motive. I interrupted, it is true, but it was with the intention of waking the honorable gentleman's audience."

On a Banana Farm.

It is estimated that a single bunch of bananas coming from South America passes through not less than 12 pairs of hands before it is finally restored aboard a ship en route to a northern market. As soon as the tree is cut and a large bunch detached it is swung on to the head of a native laborer and started to the collecting point on the plantation. Long lines of natives may be seen filing from the depths of the banana forest, bearing the bunches of fruit. When the bunches are all gathered they are put on a car and carried to the wharf, where they are unloaded and again passed through a chain of hands to the ship's hold.

SNOW COLLEGE To Be Continued To JULY 1st.

It was thought that we would close May 10th and plans were made accordingly, but we find that it will be impossible to close at this time owing to the fact that so many ladies of the city have just begun the course and to accommodate those who have expressed a desire to enter and do their spring sewing in the school room.

By this extension of time it will give anyone desiring to learn to do their own sewing sufficient time to complete any or all parts of the work.

First of all it's economy. Your spring and summer sewing will pay for the training and you will have the benefit forever.

The satisfaction of being able to have your clothes as you want them and when you want them will justify the cost even if you did not save it by doing the sewing yourself.

The knowledge is worth it alone—it arranged in a logical order so that anyone can understand it. Understanding it you will become enthusiastic as so many of the Janesville ladies have done.

We guarantee to teach anyone to be able to do their own sewing.

We have students who have taken training in other leading dressmaking schools and who realize how much more satisfactory and complete the work is in this school.

Call and talk with our students and let them tell you what they think of the work, or drop us a postal for our literature.

Nothing succeeds like success. The school has grown so that we have been obliged to take on another suite of rooms.

Start now and have plenty of time.

REDUCTIONS during this store's remodeling activities are pretty general, and while the prices are not cut extravagantly, yet enough to make your visit here an object.
